Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for your letter of 26 October. You are very kind to suggest sending me another copy of your book. I really think that it would not be advisable to do so. In the first place, I leave tomorrow for a two weeks trip to Europe, North Africa and the U.S.S.R. I will be back here for two weeks and I leave again for two weeks in South America on business. Hence, I really do not see how I could get the time to read your book, even if you did send it to me.

Best of luck to you in your present endeavors.

Sincerely,

James M. Gavin
